There are places you live in.

And there are places that quietly begin to live within you.

Designed around real life.

Native believes a home should do more than occupy space.

Every residence begins with a simple question: how can everyday life feel more intuitive, effortless, and deeply connected to the people living within it?

DUBAI
The Setting

The city never stops.

Dubai moves with ambition.
Ideas become businesses.
Plans become possibilities.
Everyday brings something new.

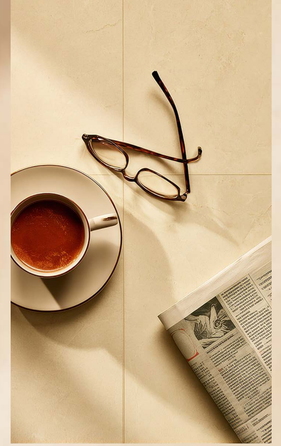

It's a city built for people who keep moving.

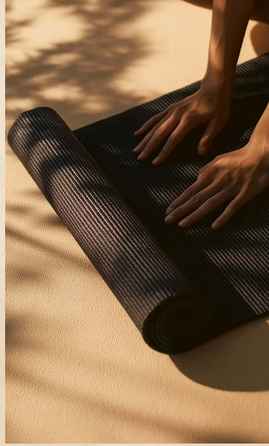

Between the pace, there is home.

Mornings start early. Work. Meetings. Routines.

The city keeps moving long after the sun goes down.
And somewhere between it all, you need a place to pause.

NATIVE HAUS
The Arrival

Life, without the rush.

Some places are designed to impress.
Others are designed to restore.
Jumeirah Village Triangle offers something increasingly rare in Dubai:
A neighbourhood that feels connected without feeling crowded.
Close enough to everything that matters.
Quiet enough to remember yourself.
This is where city living finds its gentler rhythm.

Jumeirah Village Triangle

A community designed around everyday life.
JVT is one of Dubai's more established villa-led residential communities; where green spaces, family living, sport and everyday convenience come together.

80% VILLA-LED COMMUNITY

A predominantly villa-led neighbourhood with a lower-density residential character.

PARKS AT YOUR DOORSTEP

A bouquet of nine community parks and open spaces woven throughout the neighbourhood.

SPORT, BUILT IN

Dedicated sports infrastructure with five tennis courts, two padel courts, badminton, and basketball courts across JVT.

EVERYDAY CONVENIENCE

A fulfilling life by nature with schools, parks, and the upcoming Skylight Mall where everyday essentials are close by.

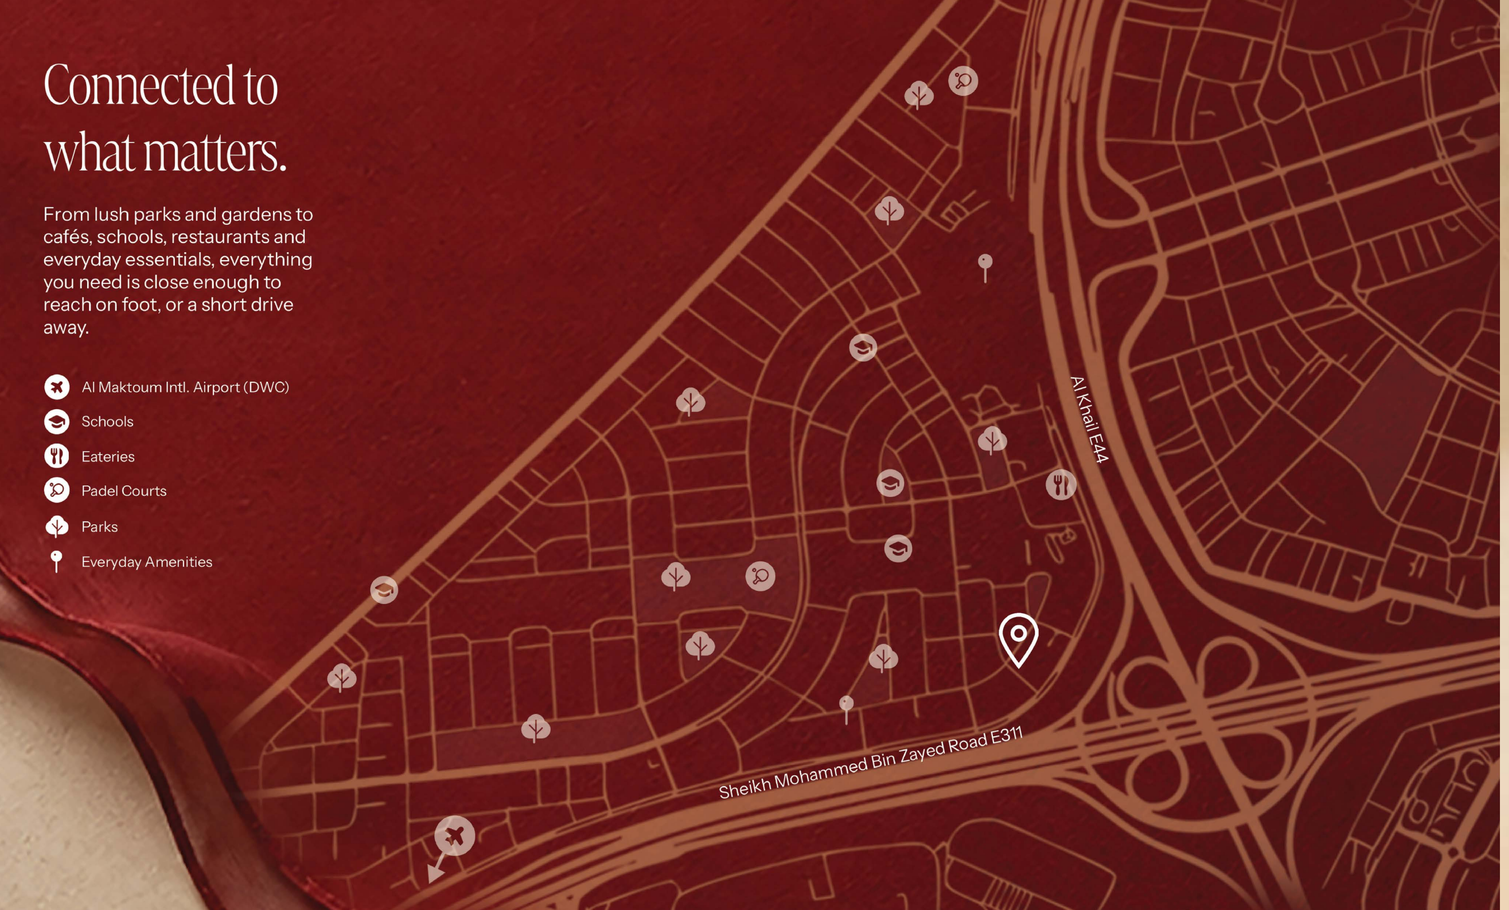

Connected to what matters.

From lush parks and gardens to cafés, schools, restaurants and everyday essentials, everything you need is close enough to reach on foot, or a short drive away.

AMENITIES

The Way You Live

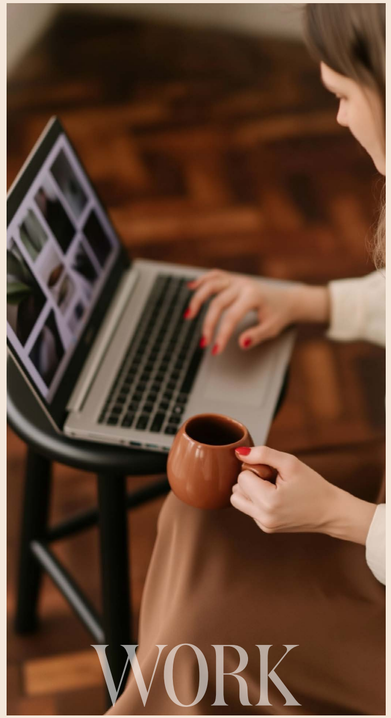

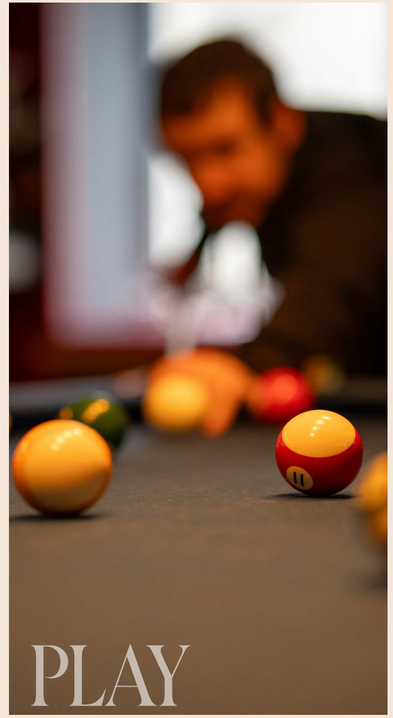

Every space, every day, with intention.

Life isn't lived inside a single room. It moves between moments of purpose, wellbeing, and connection. That's why every shared space at Native Haus has been designed to support not only what you do, but how you want to feel while doing it.

Some of life's best moments aren't planned. They're shared.

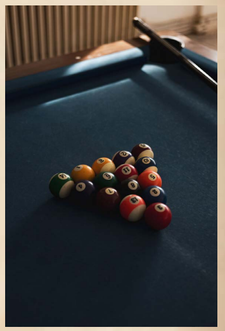

Native Haus creates places where neighbours become friends, conversations happen naturally, and everyday encounters become part of the rhythm of home.
